

CSRC is a non-governmental social development organization established in 1993. CSRC envisions a society without injustice and poverty where everyone is living life with dignity. CSRC's vision is to empower rights holders for taking lead in living sustainable, dignified and peaceful lives by fighting against poverty and all forms of injustices. Hence, CSRC has been supporting/facilitating the land rights movement led by tenants and landless farmers in Nepal.

CSRC maintains a roster for consultants and welcomes submission of resumes and company/organizational profiles on an ongoing basis from interested individuals and firms. The profiles should include areas of expertise, past experience, and three references. The areas under consideration for short-term assignments include:

1. Document Translator (English to Nepali and Nepali to English)	2. Document Editing (Both in English and Nepali)
3. Research on Land & Natural Resources	4. Project Monitoring & Evaluation
5. Human Resources Management	6. Gender Mainstreaming
7. Media Development	8. Financial Management & Fiduciary Risks
9. Land Justice	10. Access to Justice
11. Capacity Assessment & Organizational Development	12. Information, Communication & Knowledge Management
13. Baseline & Social Research	14. Strategic Planning
15. Advocacy	16. Social Movement

Please be advised that your profiles will be subjected to the CSRC's internal review process. In addition, your inclusion on the roster does not in any way guarantee award of an assignment. Those interested should submit their signed resumes and profiles to: landrights@csrcnepal.org