

Community Self-Reliance Centre (CSRC)
Dhapasi, Kathmandu

Project Fact Sheet

Name of Project	Fit-For-Purpose-Land Administration Strategy (FFPLA)
Working Area	Belaka Municipality Udayapur, Kankai Municipality Jhapa, Bharatpur Metropolitan City Chitwan
Contact Person	Jagat Deuja
Contact Number/Email	9851015145/ deujaj@csrcnepal.org
Focal person name:	Jagat Deuja
Focal person phone:	9851015145
Focal person email:	deujaj@csrcnepal.org
Project's Partner/s	UN Habitat
Project Summary [Not exceed 1000 words]	This Project is follow-up to the earlier Global Land Tool Network (GLTN) project activities supporting to land policy development and Fit-For-Purpose Land Administration (FFPLA) Country Level Strategy for Nepal. The main objective of this project is "Promotion of Fit-For-Purpose Land Administration Country Level Strategy as an enabling tool to support implementation of pro-poor gender-responsive land policy in Nepal
Project Objective/s:	Main objective of this project is "Promotion of Fit-For Purpose Land Administration Country Level Strategy as an enabling tool to support implementation of pro-poor gender-responsive land policy in Nepal". In cooperation with UN-Habitat Nepal Country Office and Global Land Tool Network (GLTN) the specific objectives of the project are to achieve.
Expected Results	Output	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Output – 1: To develop a common country priority on land issues with specific role or land program interventions of UN-Habitat. • Output- 2: Strengthen understanding of province level policy makers and other stakeholders on Fit-For-Purpose Land Administration approach and Country Level Strategy. • Output -3: Context Mapping of landlessness in one pilot Ward of Rural Municipality using GLTN tool;
Duration:	December 2018 to December 2019
Total Budget:	$25,000.00 (NPR 28,34,250)	